What Information Do You Need When Filling Out the FAFSA?

You should have the following information and documents with you as you fill out the FAFSA

Here's a checklist!

- You and your parent's Social Security number
- Your driver's license number if you have one
- Your Alien Registration Number if you are not a U.S. citizen
- Federal tax information or tax returns including IRS W-2 information, for yourself and spouse, if you are married, and for your parents if you are providing parental information
  - If you have not yet filed an income tax return, complete and submit the FAFSA using estimated tax information
  - Use income records for the year prior to the academic year for which you are applying: for instance, if you are filling out the 2011–12 FAFSA, you will need 2010 tax information, if you are filling out the 2012–13 FAFSA, you will need 2011 tax information
- Records of untaxed income, such as child support received, interest income, and veterans' non-education benefits, for yourself and spouse, if you are married, and for your parents if you are providing parental information
- Information on cash; savings and checking account balances; investments, including rental property; and business and farm assets for yourself and spouse, if you are married, and for your parents if you are providing parental information
