

HOLYOKE

EMT training offered at HCC

Registration is now open for the next Emergency Medical Technician training program at Holyoke Community College which begins on Sept. 20 and runs through Dec. 20.

The program consists of 13 weeks (170 plus hours) of in-class lectures and additional online study, training, field trips and workshops designed to prepare students for the state certification exam.

The training takes place on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6 to 10 p.m. and select Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Holyoke Community College's Center for Health Education, state-of-the-art home to the college's nursing and radiologic technology programs.

The course covers all aspects of emergency care including patient handling, extrication, and communication and makes extensive use of medical simulation labs. The course is taught by EMT Mike Marafuga.

For more information or to register, contact Ken White by calling 413-552-2324 or emailing kwhite@hcc.edu, or go online to hcc.edu/workforce.
