

Holyoke Community College will hold extended service hours to accommodate new and continuing students before the start of the fall 2018 semester. Here, an HCC Financial Aid adviser assists a student.

HOLYOKE

HCC extends hours to help fall students

Holyoke Community College will hold extended service hours to accommodate new and continuing students before the start of the fall semester.

For two weeks, beginning on Monday, the college's admissions, financial aid, testing, advising and student accounts offices on the second floor of the Frost Building at 303 Homestead Ave. will open at 8:30 a.m. and stay open until 7 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays.

On Fridays Aug. 24 and 31, offices will be open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

The fall academic semester begins on Sept. 4.

"We know many of our students work and have families to take care of, so we're happy to stay open late to accommodate their busy lives," said Renee Tastad, dean of enrollment management and college access programs.

The extended service hours will also remain in effect through Sept. 7 during the class add-drop period, Sept. 4 through 6 from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. and on Sept. 7 from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

For more information, contact HCC admissions by calling 413-552-2321 or sending email to admissions@hcc.edu.