Nursing Degree Partnership

Officials from Holyoke Community College and Westfield State University signed a dual-admission agreement that streamlines the process for students who want to continue their nursing educations at Westfield after earning an associate degree in nursing at HCC. The RN-to-BSN completion program partnership was announced during a ceremony at HCC's Center for Health Education on Jarvis Avenue, home to the college's RN (registered nurse) and LPN (licensed practical nursing) programs and medical simulation center.
