Financial Aid Authorization for TIV & PY

Use of Surplus Aid for Non-Institutional and Prior Year Charges

Financial aid funds are intended to be used for allowable institutional charges for the period of enrollment (i.e. applicable to every semester registered for credit course(s)).

You may authorize the College to use financial aid funds over and above the amount of institutional charges to pay for:

- non-institutional charges such as Student Health Insurance, Library & Lab printing and others. For a complete list see the non-institutional charges page.

- a prior-year balance of $200 or less.

This authorization may be rescinded at any time with a written request or completion of new form. If your aid is not sufficient to cover over and above the amount of institutional charges or you do not give us authorization, you must pay any such charges or balances that apply.

I authorize H.C.C. to use surplus financial aid funds to pay the following:
