DEPENDENT Household Documentation Form (2022-2023)

Student Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Reporting Parent Name(s): _____

Please fill in the information below correcting anything that may have been reported incorrectly at the time you completed your FAFSA.

Fill in information only about the following people:

- Yourself and your “financial aid parent(s)” (including stepparent), even if you do not live with them. [“Financial aid parent (s)” = parent(s) and stepparent if your parent is currently married to someone other than your other biological parent.]
- Your parent(s)’ other children if your parent(s) will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2022–2023. Include children who meet either of these standards, even if they do not live with your parent(s).
- Other people if they now live with your parent(s) and your parent(s) provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023.

*Dependent students are required to include information about both of their legal parents (biological and/or adoptive) if those parents live together, regardless of the parents’ marital status or gender.

*Consistent with the Supreme Court decision holding Section 3 of the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) unconstitutional, same-sex couples must report their marital status as married if they were legally married in a state or other jurisdiction (foreign country) that permits same-sex marriage, without regard to where the couple resides. You should report your marital status as of the date you sign your FAFSA.
