

Alumni sought for reunion

HOLYOKE — Holyoke Community College is putting out a call to all alumni who graduated from Holyoke Junior College between 1947 and 1964 to attend a special reunion celebration this spring at the HCC MGM Culinary Arts Institute.

The first-ever reunion for graduates of Holyoke Junior College, the predecessor of HCC, is slated for 3-6 p.m. Wednesday, June 5, at the culinary education center on Race Street in Holyoke.

Founded in 1946, Holyoke Graduate School changed its name to Holyoke Junior College in April 1947. After HJC joined the state's community college system in 1964, the name was changed yet again to Holyoke Community College. At that time it was located downtown at Sargeant and Pine streets in the former Holyoke High School building, which burned down in 1968.

"This is a time for our oldest alumni to meet our new leader, President George Timmons, catch up with classmates, and reminisce about the good old days," said Julie Phillips, HCC director of development.

Reunion guests will be able to tour the culinary arts facility and also enjoy a dinner prepared by HCC culinary arts students and faculty.

"I'm getting older, and there are people I miss because they live far away," said Angela Wright, a graduate of Holyoke Junior College from the class of 1954 and a member of the reunion planning committee. "You don't often have a chance to catch up with classmates from your school. I don't know how many of us are left. I'd be thrilled to see them and just chat."

Also on the reunion planning committee are alumni Maurice Ferriter (class of 1952), Frances Kane (1956), Carl Iger (1956), Pat Bresnahan (1957), Peg Wendlandt (1958), Jim Izatt (1959) and Richie Sobon (1964).

"Holyoke Junior College was very good to me," Kane said recently at a reunion planning meeting. "I was young. Coming out of high school, I didn't know where I was going to go. I went to Holyoke Junior College, which set me on my pace. I came back to the college in the early '70s to serve on the Board of Trustees under President David Bartley, and later on the HCC Foundation board of directors. It's been wonderful to me. I've made a lot of friends, and I'd like to see who's left from my class."
